| 90 | MacSparren-Lee Fund (1986) Est. with the proceeds from the sale of a Mahogany and Marble Side Table ascribed to John Goddard of Newport (1760-1770). The table was purchased by the Updike family of Wickford. Upon the death of Anstis Updike Lee the table was left to St. Paul's, Wickford "for use as an altar table" and it was so used both at St. Paul's and at the Old Narragansett Church. Its value became apparent in 1964 when $12,000 was offered for it, and it was removed to the Cathedral of St. John in Providence where it was the altar in the transept. Its further value was revealed upon appraisal in 1986, when its sale at auction was approved by Diocesan Council. The table sold for $300,000, and the fund was established by Council "for programs and projects which are intended to enhance and support the spiritual and liturgical life of the Diocese.... and of missions and parishes in union with the Diocese." | Restricted: Bishop's Office $353,108.73 |

"For the benefit and advantage of said Church of the Advent...interest or income...to be used in the payment of one or more scholarships to...students in some college, seminary, industrial or summer school." Further language in the will expresses a preference for "physically defective" candidates, who must be "communicants of the church or members of the Church of the Advent School." In the event the church ceases to exist, the residue and/or income from the trust should go to "some worthy student or students of the City of Pawtucket who is or are recommended by some Rector..." | Restricted: Dividends Reinvested $35,351.26 |
| 97 | May, Edith M. Bequest Restricted for the nourishment of avian fauna at May House property in Wickford. | Restricted: Bishop's Office $13,236.71 |
