JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS
216th ANNUAL CONVENTION

The two hundred sixteenth meeting of the Convention of the Diocese of Rhode Island began with a reception and dinner at 5:30 p.m. on Friday, October 27, 2006, at Rhodes on the Pawtuxet, Cranston. The theme for this year's Convention was Lighten The World.

Following dinner, Ms. Peggy Amatore, Director for Episcopal Charities, and Ms. Joan DeCelles, Assistant Treasurer, were recognized by the Bishop for 25 years of service to the diocese. They each were presented with a gift in recognition of their work, and the Bishop thanked them for their dedication. She commented, "I thank them for their expertise to the Diocese and their affection to all of you." The Bishop reported that Episcopal Charities is currently at the level of $451,000 and needs another $100,000 to attain their goal for this year.

Bishop Wolf introduced the speaker for the evening, The Rev. Michael Kinman, Director of Episcopalians for Global Reconciliation, who spoke on the subject of the Millennium Development Goals (MDG's) and the national Episcopal Church's role in participation. Rev. Kinman said that we, as Episcopalians, start with God revealed in Jesus Christ, and that is why the MDG's are a blueprint for becoming a brand new church. In successive General Conventions, the Episcopal Church has committed itself to the elimination of extreme global poverty by working through the MDG's. The goals were developed by the leaders of the world's nations, in cooperation with the United Nations. The goals are:

1. Eradicate extreme poverty and hunger.
2. Achieve universal primary education.
3. Promote gender equality and empower women.
4. Reduce child mortality.
5. Improve maternal health.
6. Combat HIV/AIDS, malaria and other diseases.
7. Ensure environmental stability
8. Develop a global partnership for development.

Rev. Kinman ended by saying that it is important to do this work, not because we should, but because we can. It is only when we give our lives away, that we are rich. To find out more about Episcopalians for Global Reconciliation, please see www.E4GR.org.

Convention reconvened on Saturday, October 28, 2006 at 8:30 a.m. with a celebration of the Holy Eucharist. The preacher for the celebration was The Rev. Michael Kinman, Director of Episcopalians for Global Reconciliation.

Convention was called to order at 9:45 AM with prayer. The Chancellor noted that all clerical and lay delegates are entitled to voice and vote and that all Deputies to General Convention, all officers of the Diocese and all Chairs of Commissions of the Diocese are entitled to a seat and voice, but not a vote, unless they are otherwise members of the Convention. He also observed that the Convention is open to all persons unless otherwise ordered by Convention. He said that the Convention is governed by the Constitution, Canons, and Standing Rules of Order of this Diocese. In addition, he also proposed that for Resolutions, there will be a limit of 15 minutes for two (2) speakers, then one (1) minute thereafter to allow as many as possible to speak. This motion was moved, seconded and approved. He asked all speakers to identify themselves by giving their names and congregational affiliation. He further said that any "late resolution" should be given to Ms. Carol Ann Bennett, the chair of the Committee on Resolutions.

The Secretary reported that there was a quorum present, at least one-third of the clergy were present and one-third of all parishes and missions were represented by at least one delegate. Ms. MaryAnn Kolakowski then moved that the Agenda for the 216th Annual Convention be hereby approved as presented. The motion was passed.

Rev. Sandra Haines-Murdocco, Church of the Ascension, Wakefield, made a motion that the Agenda be revised, to allow item # 16 (original agenda) Resolutions, including Late Resolutions be moved to become Item # 11 on the agenda, thence moving all items down one place accordingly. Discussion followed. Rev. Phil Devens, All Saints, Warwick commented that he supports this so that more time can be allowed for discussion of resolutions. The Chancellor commented that, thought it may not be readily apparent at first glance, the order of agenda provided for some resolutions to come out of Committee Reports. The motion was moved, seconded and approved.

Ms. Evelyn Brchan, chair of the Elections Committee then presented a slate of nominations for election:

The Bishop thanked all of those who allowed their names to be put forward for nomination.

*Since the number of nominees for the Laity on Standing Committee, and the open positions for Commission on Finance and Commission on Congregational Development equals the number of vacancies to be filled, Convention voted to declare those nominees elected.

The second request is from Mission Episcopal el Mesias in Providence, requesting admission as a mission. The Committee proposes the following resolution:

Resolved: That Mision Episcopal el Mesias in Providence is hereby approved as a mission in union with Convention upon the issuance of a certificate of admission by the Bishop. The resolution was moved and seconded. The Resolution for Mission status was approved.

The Bishop commended Mr. Batchelor and thanked him for his hard work in making sure that the Diocese financial status is always sound.

The Report of the Committee on Program and Budget; The Rev. J. Gregory Prior, Chair The Budget was moved, seconded. A discussion followed.

An amendment was presented, as follows: To restore 2006 levels of ACI chaplaincy for 2007 and to increase by the cost of living thereafter.

Ray LaPointe, Trinity, North Scituate suggested that 0.7% MDG's come from apportionment only—check this in video.

The Rev. Joyce Penfield, St. Peter and Andrew, Providence and ACI Chaplaincy spoke against the budget's line item for the ACI being reduced over three years, and said that we are backing off of our commitment to the ACI by eliminating the Episcopal chaplaincy at the ACI by the second year of the Triennial budget. At present, she said that 5% of the State budget is for rehabilitation at the ACI.

The Rev. Mary Canavan, Calvary, No. Scituate said that the MDG's appeal to every Christian, but to remove the ACI budget is troublesome and asks in the form of an amendment, that we take another look at the budget. This was seconded. The Rev. Marsue Harris and Ms. Cindy Thomas spoke in favor of the amendment. Mr. Michael Bergeron, St Michael & Grace spoke in support and suggested the reduction of 5% will reduce the staff by one (1) in the Episcopal Charities Office in order to re-fund $26,000 to the ACI budget. The Bishop commented that the two positions at the Charities office are funded by totally restricted funds, to be used for that purpose only. Rev. Ricky Brightman, St. Luke's East Greenwich suggested that if parishes pay apportionment, we could re-evaluate this situation year to year to see if it can be adjusted.

The Rev. Jennifer Philips, Vicar, St. Augustine's Kingston proposed an amendment to the amendment as follows: That up to $30,000 be moved from the Resource Center line item (59) and be used for the funding of the ACI line item, along with any year end budget surplus. After discussion, it was voted as follows: Hand vote taken; Yea- 74 Nay- 95 Amendment to the amendment defeated. Discussion went back to the original amendment (above). The question was called. The amendment was approved in a voice vote. The Bishop commented that the Diocesan Council will take up the issue of looking at the budget to accommodate this change, and it undoubtedly will mean adjustments to the budget as it appears presently.

The Bishop then called on Ms. Carol Anne Bennett, chair of the Committee on Resolutions.

She presented this resolution for consideration:

Note: Resolution #1 has already been presented by the Standing Committee and approved. Resolution #9 Amendment of Canon 9 of the Canons, has already been presented by the Committee on Canons and approved.

I. TITLE: ADOPTION OF POLICIES FOR PRUDENT MANAGEMENT OF ENDOWMENT AND INSTITUTIONAL FUNDS

RESOLVED, That the 216th Convention of the Diocese of Rhode Island recommends to all parishes, missions and institutions of the Diocese the adoption of appropriate policies for the prudent management of endowment and other institutional funds and further recommends that withdrawals from endowment and institutional funds in any one year not exceed an amount greater than seven (7) percent of the fair market value of the endowment or other institutional funds, calculated on the basis of market values determined quarterly and averaged over a period of three (3) years immediately preceding the year in which the withdrawal is made.

SUBMITTED BY: On behalf of the Standing Committee, The Rev. Robert W. Anthony, President.

Moved and seconded. Discussion:

The Rev. Robert Anthony, Christ Church, Westerly, spoke to the resolution. He said we cannot enforce this at the present time, but they wanted to caution congregations about spending down endowments. The Rev. Marc Dobson, St. Mary's Warwick, spoke against the resolution, saying that 7% endowment spending is too severe for his congregation. Mr. Robert Batchelor spoke in favor of the resolution. The resolution was approved.

II. TITLE: STUDY OF THE APPORTIONMENT SYSTEM OF THE DIOCESE

(Forwarded without recommendation)

RESOLVED, That an ad-hoc Commission be established to study the structure and pattern of the diocesan apportionment system, to consider how the proportionate share of the expenses of the Diocese might better recognize and be considerate of the differences among our several parishes; that the Commission be appointed by the Bishop with the consent of Diocesan Council and consist of five (5) members: one representative of Diocesan Council, one representative of the Commission on Finance, one representative of the Budget Committee, one cleric and one lay person, and that the Treasurer, the Comptroller and the Canon to the Ordinary shall be ex-officio members; that the Commission study diocesan support systems in use throughout the Church and submit an interim report to the 217th Diocesan Convention in 2007 and a Final Report proposing any changes the Commission may deem appropriate to the 218th Diocesan Convention in 2008, in a timely fashion, so that any changes that may be adopted might be implemented in he next three-year budget cycle.

SUBMITTED BY: The Rev. Philip J. Tierney on behalf of the Narragansett Deanery.

Moved and Seconded. Discussion:

The Rev. Daryl Stahl, Interim, Holy Trinity, Tiverton, said that we should look to the connection between stewardship and apportionment. The Rev. Philip Tierney, Rector, St. Paul's, North Kingstown, Rev. Edwin (Ted) Hallenbeck, Retired Deacon and Rev. Sandra Haines-Murdocco, Rector, Church of the Ascension, Wakefield, spoke in support of the resolution. The resolution was approved.

To report its findings to the 217th Annual Convention of the Diocese in 2007 for approval and action.

The SRI Committee will be appointed by Diocesan Council by December 1, 2006. The signers of this resolution hereby offer their participation and call upon the diocese to draw upon the competence and interests of our laity and clergy to constitute a committee capable of giving these issues the widest and wisest possible consideration. Membership should also include representatives of the Diocesan Investment Trust (DIT), Commission on Finance and the Standing Committee.

SUBMITTED BY: The Rev. Robert T. Brooks, Grace Church, Providence; The Rev. David Ames, St. Mark's, Riverside; The Rev. Daryl Stahl, Holy Trinity, Tiverton and Ms. Priscilla Read, Cathedral of St. John, Providence.

Moved and seconded. Discussion:

The Rev. Robert Brooks, Rector, Grace Church, Providence and Rev, Philip Tierney, Rector, St. Paul's North Kingstown, spoke in favor of the resolution. Rev. James Bocchino, All Saints, Providence, said that he (and some others) had not received explanations of the resolutions prior to convention day. It was reported that all delegates received the full explanations in the final packets for Convention in early October. The resolution was approved.

V. TITLE: DEVELOPING YOUNG ADULT LEADERS

VII. TITLE: THE WAR IN IRAQ

(Forwarded without recommendation)

RESOLVED, That this Convention urge the U.S. Congress to announce a timetable for the prompt withdrawal of American Armed Forces from Iraq; and be it further

RESOLVED, That U.S. resources be directed to re-building the infrastructure of Iraq in order to promote the security and well-being of Iraqi citizens; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the United States facilitate international efforts to resolve the conflicts in Iraq; and be it further

RESOLVED, That returning U.S. personnel be given the medical care and economic support and opportunities that they have merited by their valiant service under extremely difficult circumstances.

SUBMITTED BY: The Rev. David Ames, St. Mark's, Riverside; Ms. Lee Jenney, Cathedral of St. John, Providence; Ms. Priscilla Read, Cathedral of St. John, Providence.

Moved, Seconded. Discussion:

The Bishop asked for clarification as to why this was sent from the Committee on Resolutions without recommendation. Ms. Bennett answered that the language contained a lot of baggage and the committee wondered about its usefulness. Rev. David Ames, Interim, St. Mark's Riverside, mentioned that The Rev. Charles Neal Goldsborough and the Rev. Jeff Jenks are both serving in Iraq at present, and then spoke in favor of the resolution. The Rev. Mark Dobson, St. Mary's Warwick, spoke against the resolution because it carries a lot of political baggage intervening with the government's work is a violation of the division of church and state. George Parent, Christ Church, Westerly, spoke in support of the resolution. Ruth Toolan, St. Peter's By the Sea, Narragansett, spoke against the resolution because it only says "Iraq" and not "Afghanistan." She proposed an amendment to add in the word, "Afghanistan" to the text. The Rev. Richard Morgan, Vicar, St. Matthias', Coventry, not supportive of the amendment. Ann Hamm, St. Michael's Bristol spoke in support of the resolution and said that this resolution is similar to the one from General Convention. The Rev. Phil Devens, All Saints, Warwick, spoke in support of the resolution, but not the amendment. Ms. Priscilla Read and Ms. Lee Jenny, Cathedral of St. John spoke against the amendment.

The amendment was defeated. Another amendment was proposed, as follows: In the first resolve, add in "to take pro-active steps to end our participation in Iraq as soon as possible." The amendment was defeated.

A friendly amendment was made to include, “and Administration” to the text of the first resolve. This was approved. It now reads:

RESOLVED, That this Convention urge the U.S. Congress and Administration to announce a timetable for the prompt withdrawal of American Armed Forces from Iraq; and be it further

RESOLVED, That U.S. resources be directed to re-building the infrastructure of Iraq in order to promote the security and well-being of Iraqi citizens; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the United States facilitate international efforts to resolve the conflicts in Iraq; and be it further

RESOLVED, That returning U.S. personnel be given the medical care and economic support and opportunities that they have merited by their valiant service under extremely difficult circumstances.

The resolution with above stated amendment was approved.

VIII. TITLE: HOLY LAND

The sponsors of this resolution hereby offer their participation and call upon the Diocese to draw upon the competence and interests of our laity and clergy to constitute a committee capable of giving these issues the widest and wisest possible consideration.

SUBMITTED BY: The Rev. David Ames, St. Mark’s, Riverside; The Rev. Dn. Dorothy Brightman, St. Luke’s, East Greenwich; The Rev. Daryl Stahl, Holy Trinity, Tiverton; Ms. Lee Jenney, Cathedral of St. John, Providence; Ms. Priscilla Read, Cathedral of St. John, Providence.

Moved and seconded. Discussion:

A friendly amendment was made by Rev. James Bocchino, All Saints, Providence that the date in the resolution be changed from December 1, 2006 to January 15, 2007 for practical reasons. This was accepted. The resolution now reads:

VIII. TITLE: HOLY LAND

RESOLVED, That the Episcopal Diocese of Rhode Island set up a Committee for Peace in the Holy Land whose goal is to explore how we might contribute to the quest for a lasting peace based upon justice, equity and human rights for the people of Israel and Palestine. This committee shall be appointed by Diocesan Council by January 15, 2007 and will report its specific recommendations to the Diocesan Convention 2007 for approval and action. The sponsors of this resolution hereby offer their participation and call upon the Diocese to draw upon the competence and interests of our laity and clergy to constitute a committee capable of giving these issues the widest and wisest possible consideration.

Further discussion: Mr. Steven Rous, Trinity Church, Newport spoke against the right of return of all Palestinians, and Ms. Priscilla Read responded that this was part of a quote, not wording from their resolution. The Rev. Ricky Brightman, St. Luke's East Greenwich, spoke in support of the resolution, saying that sending this to Diocesan Council was a way of going to action. An amendment was presented saying, "in consultation with our Jewish brothers." The Rev. Robert Brooks, Grace Church, Providence spoke against the amendment because it did not include Muslims and Palestinians. The Rev. Marc Dobson, St Mary's Warwick, spoke against the amendment and the resolution because he feels that this is out of our area of expertise. The Rev.

Mary Ann Dolan, Non-parochial, spoke against the amendment. The amendment was defeated.

The resolution as above, with friendly amendment was approved.

Ms. Carol Frink, Trinity, North Scituate, Offered a friendly amendment that “including electronically” be added. This was approved. The resolution now reads:

THE ADDRESS OF
THE RT. REV. GERALYN WOLF
TO THE 216TH CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF RHODE ISLAND
28 OCTOBER 2006

The Lord said to Jeremiah,
Stand at the crossroads, and look,
and ask for the ancient paths,
where the good way lies; and walk in it,
and find rest for your souls. (Jeremiah 6:16a)

Our Church and Diocese are standing at a crossroad, at the intersection of competing theological claims and differing interpretations of scripture and polity, of the complex relationship between interdependence and independence, autonomy and the common good.

The world is also standing at a crossroads. Through almost instant communications what is said in one nation is known in all. When war and destruction visit upon one country, refugees flee to another. The rise and fall of major currencies alters the exchange rates around the globe. Bird flu in Asia can reach our soil on the next international flight. What direction is God calling us to follow? What turns must we take?

Today we cross thresholds of technology unimaginable even five years ago. Every institution is affected, not least, the church. We keep in delicate balance the blessings of the ancient paths and the fruits of the present age; the values we inherited, and scientific discoveries that are as exciting as they are bewildering. As we traverse this landscape we are met with challenges and decisions for which we are only partially prepared. We stand where the roads cross, faced with decisions for which there are few easy answers.

Part of the present distress in the church is determining how we will discover the path that God wants us to follow. When our personal preferences, experiences, and emotions dictate the direction we choose, it is easy to get lost. When the map is filled with struggles for power and claims of absolute truth, we will not find the way. Evil spirits often come dressed as good, and good spirits may often seem evil. Our Adversary the Devil is an expert in deception. Only together as the Church will we discern the spirits and discover the wisdom of the ancient paths and God's vision for our future.

Last year, our Diocese stood at a crossroads, recognizing that we needed to take a fresh look at our mission and ministry for the years ahead. In response to the Bridgebuilders Report, Diocesan Council exercised strong, imaginative leadership in developing new directions for our common life. I'm pleased to report that Council did not put the report on the shelf, and there isn't a bit of dust on its covers. Lora MacFall, convener of the New Directions Task Force, will discuss their work in greater detail this afternoon.

Congregations have also crossed thresholds.

When the Church of the Messiah merged with Grace Church this past June, Messiah had strong leadership, an endowment, a building in good condition, and a half-time priest. Some of you may be wondering why they did such a foolish thing. I'll tell you why. They looked down the road two years and realized that their endowment would be almost depleted. They looked at each other and realized that they didn't have the numbers to sustain gospel ministry. They admitted that the church isn't about buildings but about faith in Jesus Christ and his mission. That's why they merged.

That's why St. Martin's, Pawtucket and St. Michael and Grace, Rumford will become one congregation. They want more than survival: they want ministry and mission, church school and choir, Christian education for all ages, and a robust community with which to live the faith.

You may be surprised to learn that, in each of these cases, initial misgivings slowly turned to lively discourse and genuine excitement. The thought of merging churches unleashes many strong emotions, but we trust that ultimately the manager of all change is Christ himself. So, we pray to God to manage our hearts and minds, not for ourselves alone, but for the good of the Church.

Church members are often suspicious about working with another congregation, thinking that they are too different from each other. They come from a different economic class, their worship is different. One doesn't have a Christmas Bazaar the other does have a May Breakfast, their pews are uncomfortable, and there is too much past history between them. Saints on earth, if we who profess to believe in the values of diversity, forgiveness and reconciliation can't live together, how can we speak of peace to others? How can we pass resolutions for peace half way around the world, when we can hardly talk to the parish two miles away? Unity is Jesus' gift to us, living in unity is our gift to Jesus. Perhaps you cannot love the other, but will you allow Jesus to love the other through you? It is a critical spiritual question that we must take seriously if we are to witness to the gospel with integrity.

Many of you believe that mergers and closings suggest defeat and death. For Christians death is not an end, but a threshold, a point of crossing over, of entering a new and risen life. An example of this comes through The Church of the Epiphany, Providence. The Church is in need of almost four million dollars to repair its buildings. This work is well beyond the means of the congregation. With the vicar and representatives of the mission, we are working with Greater Elmwood Neighborhood Services, investigating ways to develop the site for desperately needed low income housing units. The diocese would lease the land to the corporation, who would develop the site. A feasibility study and environmental assessment are currently underway. Partnerships such as these address our commitment to the poor, and allow for the continuation of Episcopal ministry in this part of the city. They are examples of how we can creatively transform our resources.

A sub-committee of Diocesan Council is working on guidelines for the disposition of buildings and the use of funds so that the mission of the merged churches, and the mission of the diocese share common resources for purposes of Church growth throughout our state.

Did you know that there are three churches in our diocese that are considering increasing the capacity of their church and program areas to meet the demands of growth? We have to be ready for them, and for planting new churches in parts of Rhode Island that are earmarked for demographic growth.

I'm eager to share with you three church communities who are poised to cross significant thresholds.

St. Augustine, Kingston is moving from mission to parish status upon consent of this convention. For three consecutive years they have had a combination of revitalized ministry and mission, a healthy budget that includes apportionment giving, and the faithful and skilled leadership of a full time vicar, soon to become rector. The laity is hard working, and devoted to the continued growth and outreach of this congregation.

Last year, about 18 people began a Sunday afternoon celebration of the Holy Eucharist in Spanish. They are now a hundred strong and have asked to become organized as a mission. They have already informed me that they are preparing fifty people for Confirmation. The unrelenting work of the Hispanic Mission Committee deserves the gratitude of all of us. With the consent of this convention Mision Episcopal el Mesías will become the first new mission in this diocese in many years.

Three hundred years ago, strong faith and a lively vision led a group of people to place a church in what is now Narragansett. They soon decided to move the Old Narragansett Church to Wickford, later building St. Paul's across the street. Last Sunday, I had the privilege to celebrate and preach in both churches in celebration of the beginning of their tercentenary year.

Every parish and mission wants a robust ministry, young people, new members, mission activity, more money, congregational development, education, and a priest as wonderful as Fr. Smith was in 1964. Except for Fr. Smith's return, you can have it all. One thing we know, when energy is dedicated to survival, no one survives for long. When energy is in the service of new life, creativity and hope abound. New life comes with the surrender of old securities, and the embrace of an unknown and risky future. Christianity is about the person and about the community. Each of us has personal needs and desires, but the Church is larger than any one person or group. Our faith tradition believes that personal sacrifice leads to good, and doing good is a personal sacrifice worth making.

I know you don't like to talk about money, but I do. Money buys mission. It buys opportunity and hope, education and shelter, food and water. Money allows people to make choices, even to make mistakes. Money leads to personal liberty, and freedom from disease, to mobility and a sense of self worth. God is so generous that he gives us everything and lets us keep 90%. And what about that other 10%? Well, he entrusts us to give it away; to join him in bringing the Kingdom of God to our time and place. It's what we call tithing.

Do you know that Rhode Islanders spend $1,600 per person, per year on gambling? Our average pledge is $1,087 per household. Our state spends the most on gambling and the least in pledging of all the states and dioceses in our country. It's time for us to lose both these distinctions. A re-dedication to the common good will revitalize the local church, and our diocesan mission. I know that you think that you would have a thriving church if only you didn't have to pay the apportionment. But, I don't believe it. Only generosity begets generosity. I bid you to consider increasing your pledge by at least 10%.

During the budget hearings, a suggestion was raised that we decrease the number of staff. I've taken the proposal seriously, and a reduction in Diocesan staff is part of this budget. It will become the smallest staff we've had in over twenty years. I'm not sure we'll be able to manage, unless we have your assistance. Here is how you can help:

- Please send parochial reports in on time. We are missing some from 2003, 2004, and 2005. Without the reports we have inaccurate attendance figures, and it's difficult to prepare the budget.
- Please send in your audit reports. The due date was September 1st and we're missing 25.
- Please return requests on time for the number of those to be confirmed and received so that we don't have to make significant changes a few days before the event.
- Please don't complain if you receive a turkey sandwich today and you don't like it. All those who did not check a preference for lunch are getting turkey.
- Please send your apportionment in on time, and if you haven't paid your apportionment yet, don't complain when your favorite program was cut or modified in the budget.
- Please send in your reports and registrations for convention sooner next year. We can't send the Convention packet unless things are sent to the office on time. Over forty requests for last night's dinner arrived since Monday, long after the deadline had passed and the numbers had been given to the caterer.

Well, I've gotten that off my chest. I'm sure parish secretaries and priests could echo many of these same remarks. When we commit ourselves to be responsible to one another, we all benefit.

Hispanic Ministry, Congregational Development, the implementation of New Directions, and the Episcopal Conference Center were our goals for this year. I am delighted to say that the first three of these areas have developed beyond my expectations. As many of you know, the interim director of ECC resigned in the middle of the season. Although there were difficulties, the program barely missed a beat because of the wonderful staff that oversees the camp, and the willingness of Sue Hurn to take over the position of interim director. In spite of a temporary setback, upgrades of cabins are complete, fire codes are met, and work continues towards accreditation with the American Camping Association.

Our diocesan vision is: “Live in Christ: Transform the World.”

It’s not easy to live in Christ. I don’t think that he would have written the book, “I’m okay, you’re okay.” His book would have been, “I’m okay, and you can be better.” Living in Christ is a constant journey from wherever we are to wherever he is. All along the way he loves and forgives us, picks us up and renews a right spirit within us. Can you imagine if “The Episcopal Church Welcomes You,” sign read, “Seeking All Sinners.” It is not that sin is okay, but it is inevitable. It is in recognizing and confessing sin that it becomes possible to cross the threshold to authentic love and forgiveness. For people who live with unremitting shame and guilt, the Church’s witness to Christian forgiveness is an invitation to spiritual and emotional freedom. Good News indeed!

Unity and reconciliation are born from the ability and willingness to forgive. When I was four years old, I lived with my grandparents. My grandmother’s two sisters would frequently come to visit, sitting around the kitchen table drinking cups of tea. After about twenty minutes or so, they would begin to argue. I don’t remember the content of the arguments, but the results were usually the same. Aunt Lilly would start yelling, my grandmother would start crying, and Aunt Roz threatened to leave. Soon after they would vow to never see each other again. However, by the next week, my aunts and uncles returned, and we all sat around the dinner table eating and talking and laughing. I never understood the reason for their strong and passionate emotions, but their ability to forgive and move on was a lesson not wasted on a child. I believe it to be at the heart of authentic love.

Some of you have questioned why I joined twenty other bishops in signing a document stating that I would adhere to the guidelines set forth in the Windsor Report. As a bishop of the Church, I take seriously my vow to maintain the unity of the Church. I signed the document as a personal statement of commitment and not on behalf of the diocese. I know that many of you hold a different perspective, which I honor and respect.

H.L. Mencken wrote book reviews and newspaper articles until the mid-1950’s. He received many letters affirming his work and countless letters of vigorous dissent. I know the feeling. To both friend and foe his response was, “You may be right, (signed) H.L. Mencken.” Recognizing the tension between truth, unity, and claims for justice, I believe that the Windsor Report is the best hope we have to create the space necessary to further the dialogue between the 38 Provinces of the Anglican Communion and to further our interdependent global mission. The Windsor Report offers a fine rehearsal of Anglican theology and I commend it to be studied in all our churches. I never really understood why my great aunts had to fight so much and I really don’t understand why all our Anglican Communion siblings are fighting now. I suppose that's the plight of having brothers and sisters.

As I wrote to the clergy and lay leaders, my support of the Windsor Report does not change any of the policies for the process of ordination as set forth in our diocese, nor the manner of calling priests to serve our churches. Rest assured that I have no intention of leaving the Episcopal Church, and look forward to participating in the Institution of The Right Reverend Katharine Jefferts Schori as the 26th Presiding Bishop.

When the world is in such disarray, where governments settle disputes on the battlefield, where children suffer from cruelty and abuse, where the environment is exploited, the Church must witness to reconciliation.

When in our own country 45 million people do not have health insurance; when our possessions become idols and sex a commodity; when the minimum wage leads the worker to maximum deprivation; and the national debt looms over future generations; the Church must witness to a different moral standard.

When we learn of corporate scandal, the abject poverty in the world, the false promises of gambling, the real spoils of war, and the callous treatment of prisoners; the Church must witness to gospel principles and values.

Why? Because war, idolatry, discord, greed, envy, gossip and materialism will never solve our problems nor provide the forgiveness and love we seek. Whether we are speaking of the genocide in Darfur, the seemingly endless struggle in the Middle East, or the widening gap between rich and poor in Rhode Island, the ways of the gospel hold our only hope for the fairness and reconciliation we seek. To be a Christian is to follow the ways, words, and actions of Jesus as we, the Church, can best interpret and understand them. It is to offer ourselves in deep prayer and silence so as to be met by God who has been praying in us all along.

Friends, I am happy to be a Christian. I am happy to be part of the Episcopal Church and the Anglican Communion. I am very happy to be the Bishop of Rhode Island, accepting the honor and privilege of serving all of you, and receiving with gratitude your trust and affection. The ancient path for all of us is the path of faithfulness. Through faith and commitment, we do not fear roads that intersect, but acknowledge them to be the cross upon which we live for a time. We believe that resurrection will prevail, and the Light of Christ will enlighten the heart of the Church and the darkest corners of the world.

The Lord said to Jeremiah,
Stand at the crossroads, and look,
and ask for the ancient paths,
where the good way lies; and walk in it,
and find rest for your souls. (Jeremiah 6:16a)

NECROLOGY

In particular at this time we remember the following persons, deceased during this past year, who have meant so much to us and to their several congregations. May the souls of these faithful, departed rest in peace, O Lord.

The Report of the Standing Committee to the Diocesan Convention

Saturday, October 28, 2006

As canonically constituted, the Standing Committee is comprised of four lay and four clergy members, meeting almost monthly through the year, with an elected president and secretary each serving a one-year term. We serve the Diocese as well as functioning as a Council of Advice to the Bishop as she sees fit. We are pleased that Bishop Wolf has attended nearly every meeting of the Standing Committee when she is available, and we have appreciated a growing sense of partnership with her at her initiative. We act as a kind of watchdog or gatekeeper, certifying canonical requirements regarding Ordination. We are grateful for the three persons forwarded this year from the Commission on Ministry, and we have established an even closer working relationship with C.O.M. It is our function to review calls for election of bishops in other diocese and to ratify the selection of bishops once elected and we usually approve. Matters of clergy discipline fall to our purview in a completely confidential and sensitive manner.

It has been our interest to participate in proposed and actual mergers of congregations which is, again, a very complex, sensitive and pastoral matter. We receive reports from Diocesan Council and the Finance Committee. We have worked with the Bridgebuilders Report with follow-through actions undertaken by the Council. We feel the need to review and encourage congregational development and mission strategy within the Diocese, regarding the health of our parishes and missions and the clergy.

Also, it is our work to consider requests from parishes and missions over matters of selling or encumbering church property and assets. Congregations and other Episcopal institutions in the diocese need to secure permission in order to proceed. The Standing Committee worked with the Bishop involving one congregation that has removed itself from the Diocese and National Church this year, and we continue to seek a spirit of openness and cooperation in such trying situations.

We remain concerned with the financial and spiritual health of our churches and thus we put before you today, at this convention, the following resolution regarding fiscal responsibility in the matter of the good stewardship of endowment funds, property and other assets committed in trust to congregations. While we realize that we cannot enforce legislation on such matters, at this point, the Standing Committee believes that it should caution Vestries and Bishop's Committees about spending down such assets to the detriment of a congregation's future viability.

I wish to thank our Bishop, the Chancellor, the Diocese staff and our very able members of the Standing Committee this year. I thank you.

Respectfully submitted, The Rev'd Robert W. Anthony, President

Commission on Congregational Development – 2006

The year of 2006 was spent in preparing for our second class of the Learning Community which began in October of 2006 with six leadership teams in attendance – St. George's, Central Falls; St. Augustine's, Kingston; Trinity, Newport; Cathedral of St. John, Providence; Grace Church, Providence, and St. Mary's Church, Warwick. The eight Saturday presentations covered new member incorporation, generational lenses, church vitality, marketing your church, and small group development.

Congregations participating in the first learning community who submitted development plans were Holy Trinity, Scituate; Calvary, Pascoag; St. David's-on-the-Hill, Cranston; St. Alban's, Centredale, and St. George's, Newport. These plans were reviewed by the Commission and the Leadership Teams. Based on the plans, congregations were able to ask for matching grants to help fund new or expanded programs in support of their development plan.

The Commission on Ministry 2006

The role of the Commission on Ministry is to advise and assist the Bishop in the implementation of Title III, Ministry, of the Constitution and Canons of The Episcopal Church. Under the guidance and oversight of the Bishop, the Commission has primary responsibility for the selection, examination, interviewing and evaluation of all applicants for Holy Orders and in the determination of present and future opportunities and needs for the ministry of all baptized people.

In following these guidelines the following work was done by the Commission.

Discernment Program

This program is to help participants learn more about themselves and their gifts and to assist them in finding a path for ministry that is right for them, be it ordained or lay ministry. It is not an evaluation process and while required for those seeking ordination, it is open to all.

In the fall a recruiting letter was sent to all clergy in the Diocese encouraging them to seek out those in their parish community who they thought would benefit from the discernment program. Articles were published in Risen and eRisen encouraging participation in the program. Twenty people responded to the invitation.

The program began with an Introductory Dinner in September for those interested in the program, their spouse, and rector. Following the dinner the program was presented followed by a question and answer session. Thirty-seven people attended the dinner, 20 were people who were interested in the program. Others attending were rectors, spouses, and members of the Commission.

The Discernment Program met monthly from September through April and included the Introductory Dinner, a Quiet Day, programs in Adventure in Awareness, informal dinner with participants, spouses and rectors for fellowship, Christian Formation, Assigned Readings, Trip Through the Prayer Book, and a Closing Event for evaluation and feedback from participants in the program.

Ten people from throughout the Diocese participated in this program and five applied for Postulancy interviews. The following people were accepted to Postulancy: James McKay, St. John's, Newport; Anne Burke, Christ Church, Westerly; and Modesta Pellot, St. George's, Central Falls.

The Commission met in June to evaluate the past year and prepare for the upcoming year. The Discernment Program for 2006-2007 was formulated with attention being given to the feedback received from the participants in last year's program.

Listening Hearts Discernment Groups

In November training was held for Listening Hearts Discernment Groups using the book written by Suzanne Farnham, Listening Hearts: Discerning Call in Community. Ms. Beverly Hall oversaw the organization of the training. Fifteen people from throughout the Diocese took this training. The mentors for the training were the Rev. Pamela Gregory and the Rev. Jennifer West.

In turn, these fifteen people were discerners for those in the Discernment Group to explore a sense of call. The group consisted of the convener, three discerners and the focus person (the one who is discerning a call and is a part of the Discernment Program.) The group met for a three hour period for as many times as necessary for the focus person to determine what the call might be.

Deacon Formation Program

The Deacon Formation Program was formed in 2005 with the Rev. Wayne Runner overseeing the program as the dean. The program is carefully designed to meet the academic, practical and spiritual requirements of Title III. The program consists of classes, retreats and practical experiences. Five students were enrolled this year: Dorothy Brightman, Joan Collins, Mark Warter, Anne Burke, and Modesta Pellot. The program is conducted at the Diocesan House.

RESOLVED, that the Committee recommends that Diocesan Council approve a 4% increase in recommended minimum salaries for various size parishes and various amounts of similar service for 2007.

According to the minutes from the Convention Secretary, the Triennial Budget for 2007-2009 was not voted on at Convention. Therefore, a motion was made and seconded “That Diocesan Council officially accepts the Diocesan Triennial Budget for 2007-2009”. The motion was so voted with 1 opposed.

EPISCOPAL CHARITIES

The Episcopal Charities Annual Campaign for the year 2006 was a great success. The Board of Trustees, all committees and parish volunteers successfully complete their work both in fundraising and outreach efforts. Grant distributions in the amount of $533,415 were given to 107 social service agencies and programs throughout Rhode Island.

Congratulations are extended to the agencies funded through Episcopal Charities for their commitment to deliver the valuable services given to the people of Rhode Island who are in crisis and need.

The Susan Hudson Memorial Fund awarded grants totaling $12,600 to Grantmakers Council for Emergency Energy Assistance pan, Rhode Island State Council of Churches for the Youth Link Program, the Shriners, "Circus Day" and Teen 4 Teen Program at St. Martin's Church in Pawtucket.

In total, The Episcopal Charities Fund of Rhode Island dispersed $546,015 to assist people in crisis and fragile situations.

The volunteers and donors of Episcopal Charities deserve gratitude and recognition for their work, dedication and support. Special thanks are extended to Carol Keiser for the Church of the Good Shepherd, Pawtucket, Nancy Kaull of St. Luke's, East Greenwich and The Rev. Austin Almon (Skip) for their outstanding leadership. Gratitude and appreciation is extended to all the member of the Board of Trustees for their commitment to the mission of Episcopal Charities.

National Philanthropy Day was held in November, 2006. Organizations throughout Rhode Island had an opportunity to honor their valued volunteers as "Partners in Philanthropy". The Rev. and Mrs. John Hall were named "Partners in Philanthropy" of Episcopal Charities for many years of outstanding service and dedication.

CONTINUING EDUCATION COMMITTEE

The Continuing Education Committee dispenses grants to clergy serving in churches of the Diocese of Rhode Island who wish to engage in specific continuing education programs that will benefit their parochial ministries. The Committee normally meets as needed to respond to applications or by "polling" members of the Committee by e-mail as needed. The grant moneys come from restricted endowment funds and grants must conform to the terms of the restrictions and to the policies guiding the Committee.

In 2006 a total of $2,651 was granted to four (4) clergy for the purpose of continuing education and/or sabbaticals.

Respectfully submitted,
The Rt. Rev. David B. Joslin
Assisting Bishop

EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE CENTER

ADDRESS TO DIOCESAN COUNCIL OCTOBER 28, 2006

Last year when I stood before Council to present the report of the Task Force that looked at the future of the Episcopal Conference Center, I was certain that was the last time I would be presenting a report to you. I could not have imagined that I would be talking with you as the Acting Director of ECC and be part of the team to put into effect the recommendations of the Task Force.

What a difference a year makes!! This summer we welcomed a total of 603 campers over 8 camp weeks. Our counseling staff was assisted by 70 visiting staff who gave at least one week to ECC, many of them more. I admire the stamina of the counseling staff – the days are long and full during camp, and they have to be vigilant and creative every day. We also welcomed four young men from Europe as counselors this year. They were a wonderful addition to the staff. I plan to recruit more counselors through Camp America for this summer.

A recommendation of the Task Force was to have both a Director of ECC and a Summer Program Director. When I first went to ECC this summer it was to be the Summer Program director. When the Interim Director resigned, Bishop Wolf appointed me as the Acting Director. Which meant that the remainder of the summer, I served in both positions, which was the model we are committed to leaving behind. I am here to tell you, the old model is not efficient, when one has to choose which hat to wear, it is the Program Director hat that fits for the summer.

Having that experience behind me, I plan to advertise for a Program Director who will work very part-time as we plan for the summer, then be full-time for the summer. My hope is to have that person in place by February.

Bishop Wolf said she wanted to focus on getting ECC accredited by the American Camp Association. So much time is spent in planning program, I haven't begun to focus on accreditation. Having a Program Director in place will allow me to do that.

While we traditionally focus on the summer camp ministry, ECC is open and fully functional the other 40 weeks of the year. Joyce Roberts, our Resident Manager, has worked very hard to recruit groups to use our facility. We have a number of repeat groups that like the rustic surroundings and warm hospitality we offer. Now we are hosting groups that come on the recommendation of other groups. The word is out!

I would also like to begin to develop programs for adults to spend a day or a weekend, walking the labyrinth or spending quiet time in the Tower of Silence, exploring their spirituality.

We have started several new initiatives:

One is the Buy-A-Brick Program, for a memorial walk from the parking lot to the house.

Another is the Adopt-A-Cabin program. Lance Roberts, our Property Manager, and I have identified needs for each of the cabins on the property. We are encouraging deaneries, parishes, groups and individuals to adopt a cabin to provide the materials necessary to bring the cabin up to code. Sweat equity will be most welcome, also!

ECC has a very active Alumni group. I am very grateful for the work their support. It was just the other day that I realized the Alumni group is for former Counselors. So – I realized there is a whole group of people who came to ECC at some point in their youth, were never counselors, and may might want to be involved, but do not have a vehicle. This June we are going to have an all- inclusive cookout for anyone who came to camp and would like to see what we have done, tell stories and perhaps volunteer at camp.

There is a lot happening at ECC, more than I have time to share with you today. I work with a wonderful year-round staff of Joyce and Lance Roberts and Barbara Sidla. I urge you to visit our display table, come to visit us, keep us in your prayers as we move forward to serve God in this wonderful place.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of The Diocese of Rhode Island (a not-for-profit organization) as of December 31, 2005, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Diocese's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Diocese of Rhode Island as of December 31, 2005, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

THE DIOCESE OF RHODE ISLAND
Providence, Rhode Island

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2005

Note 1. NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

The Diocese of Rhode Island (“Diocese”) is a nonprofit religious corporation established under the laws of the State of Rhode Island. The Diocese is dedicated to establishing, developing, and furthering all aspects of The Episcopal Church in Rhode Island.

The Diocese is supported by apportionment amounts received from member parishes, contributions received from various donors, and endowment income.

Note 2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements of the Diocese have been prepared utilizing the accrual basis of accounting.

The Diocese’s financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 117, “Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations.” Under SFAS No. 117, the Diocese is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets. The categories are: unrestricted, temporarily restricted, and permanently restricted. In addition, the Diocese is required to present a statement of cash flows.

All donor-restricted support is reported as an increase in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets, depending on the nature of the restriction. When a restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose of restriction is accomplished), temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the Statement of Activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Management’s policy requires that the net appreciation in permanently restricted assets be retained permanently in an amount necessary to adjust the historic dollar value of the original gifts by the change in the consumer price index. Any remainder of appreciation is available for appropriation.

Contributions

The Diocese records contributions in accordance with SFAS No. 116, “Accounting for Contributions Received and Contributions Made,” whereby contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets upon satisfaction of the time or purpose restrictions.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2005

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include all monies in banks and highly liquid investments with maturity dates of three months or less.

Receivables

Accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect on outstanding balances. Management provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a provision for bad debt expense and an adjustment to a valuation allowance based on its assessment of the current status of individual accounts. Balances that are still outstanding after management has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the valuation allowance and a credit to accounts receivable.

Investments

The Diocese accounts for its investments in accordance with SFAS No. 124, "Accounting for Certain Investments Held by Not-for-Profit Organizations." Under SFAS No. 124, investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are valued at their fair value in the statement of financial position. Unrealized gains and losses are included in the change in net assets.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Property and Equipment

Missions and other real property in the name of the Diocese at January 1, 1982 were recorded at appraised value. Subsequent acquisitions are carried at cost. Land and building of the Hallworth House are carried at cost. Land and buildings restricted by donors are recorded at appraised value. Equipment and motor vehicles are carried at cost. Depreciation is calculated on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

Income Tax Status

The Diocese qualifies as a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and, therefore, has no provision for federal income taxes. In addition, the Diocese qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A).

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 10. PENSION PLANS

The Diocese has a defined benefit pension plan covering its retired lay employees. Benefits are based on years of service and the employee's average earnings for the highest five (5) consecutive years. The Diocese's funding policy is to annually contribute the amount required under the minimum funding standards.

The Diocese did not contribute to this plan in 2005. An actuary's statement shows that no contribution was needed to keep the plan funded in accordance with the minimum funding standards of ERISA.

The Diocese also has a defined contribution plan sponsored by the National Church. The plan covers the Diocese's active lay employees. Contributions are made by the Diocese at a minimum of five percent of an employees salary to a maximum of nine percent. The Diocese contributed $41,070 to this plan in 2005.

The Diocese also contributed $69,444 to a plan sponsored by the National Church covering clergy employed by the Diocese.

Note 11. CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

At times throughout the year the Diocese maintains certain bank accounts in excess of the FDIC insured limits.
