

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN SERVING ON A DIOCESAN COMMITTEE OR COMMISSION?

Volunteers are always needed for these important roles. Some of the positions are elected by Diocesan Council; others are elected by the Diocesan Convention. Listed below are the committees and commissions that govern our diocese. They all contain a combination of clergy and lay people. For the most part, people are elected to three-year terms (there are some exceptions to this). A person may serve for two consecutive three-year terms.

A complete list of all these committees and the current membership can be found on the Diocesan website. There is also a short description that outlines the work of each group. Go to www.episcopalri.org/about/leading-your-diocese/ Or call 401-274-4500.

If you are interested in serving on any of these committees or commissions, fill out the information below. Not every group has vacancies every year, so someone from the Committee on Elections will be in contact with you. You can scan and email it to convention@episcopalri.org

To be formally nominated for a position, you must fill out a separate nomination form. This includes writing a short biography (less than 150 words). If you are a lay person, the priest at your church is asked to sign the form indicating that you are a communicant in good standing and that she/he supports your nomination. In addition, all nominees are asked to get the signatures of three delegates to Diocesan Convention before submitting the nomination form.
