CONSTITUTION OF THE DIOCESE OF RHODE ISLAND

ARTICLE I

Title

This Diocese shall be known as the Diocese of Rhode Island (the 'Diocese') and shall be incorporated under the laws of the State of Rhode Island.

ARTICLE II

Member of The Episcopal Church

The Diocese is a constituent member of The Episcopal Church, accedes to the Constitution and Canons of The Episcopal Church, and acknowledges the authority of the General Convention of The Episcopal Church.

ARTICLE III

Governance of the Diocese

Section 3.1 The authority of the Diocese is vested in and exercised by its Bishop (and Bishop Coadjutor, if there is one), its Conventions, and its Standing Committee, acting under and in subordination to The Episcopal Church, its Constitution, Canons, and its General Convention.

Section 3.2 The authority of the Bishop Coadjutor shall be such as the Bishop shall designate to the Diocesan Convention prior to the time of the election of the Coadjutor, and as such authority may be subsequently enlarged by the Bishop.

Section 3.3 The Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese is the Bishop. In the Bishop's absence or inability to act, or upon the written request of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor shall be the Ecclesiastical Authority. If there is no Bishop Coadjutor or if both the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor are absent or unable to act, or upon the written request of the Bishop, or if the Episcopate becomes vacant, the Standing Committee shall be the Ecclesiastical Authority.

Section 3.4 The Bishop shall be the chief pastor of the Diocese.

ARTICLE IV

Diocesan Conventions

Section 4.1 The Diocese shall have an Annual Convention at such time and place as the Charter, Convention, or the Standing Committee shall designate.

Section 4.2 The Ecclesiastical Authority shall have the power to call a Special Convention. The call shall designate the time, place and purpose of the Special Convention and no business other than that stated in the call shall be transacted except by unanimous consent.

Section 4.3 At least thirty (30) days written notice of every Annual or Special Convention shall be given by the Secretary of the Convention or, if the office of Secretary is vacant, by the Secretary of the Standing Committee. The notice shall be sent to every cleric canonically resident in, and every parish and mission of, the Diocese and shall specify the time and place and, in the case of a Special Convention, the purpose of the Convention.

Section 4.4 With the concurrence of the Standing Committee, the Bishop may change the time or place, or both, of its Annual or Special Convention, provided that notice of such change shall be given in accordance with the preceding section. In the Bishop's absence or inability to act, the Ecclesiastical Authority may act for the Bishop.

Section 4.5 The Bishop shall preside at the Convention. In the absence of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there is one, and in the absence of both, the Bishop Suffragan, if there is one, shall preside. In case of the absence or incapacity of the Bishops, a president pro tempore, shall be elected from among the members of the Convention.

Section 4.6 At every Annual Convention there shall be a celebration of Holy Communion and a statement or address by the Bishop concerning the affairs of the Diocese. Every session of an Annual or Special Convention shall be opened with a prayer.

Section 4.7 Whenever this Constitution or the Canons require that a vote be taken by orders, the clerical order and the lay order shall vote separately and must concur in order to constitute an act of the Convention.

Section 4.8 One third of all clergy eligible to vote, and not less than one third of all parishes and missions represented by at least one delegate, shall constitute a quorum. If such representation of the clerical order and of the foregoing congregations is not present at any ballot, and if a quorum is called for, then it shall be announced that no quorum exists, and the Convention shall be recessed until such a quorum is present.

ARTICLE V

Membership of Convention

Section 5.1 The Convention shall be composed of Bishops, Presbyters and Deacons ('Clergy'), and delegates, sitting as one body.

Section 5.2 Unless otherwise provided herein, every cleric not under ecclesiastical discipline who is and has been canonically resident within the Diocese for a period of three (3) months prior to the first day of the month in which the Convention is held shall be a voting member of Convention.

Section 5.3 Every other cleric who is canonically resident in the Diocese and not under ecclesiastical discipline shall be entitled to seat and voice in the Convention, but not to a vote.

Each such delegate and alternates shall be a member of the

- (a) A certificate from the Bishop approving the organization of such parish;

- (b) A certificate from the Standing Committee approving the organization of such parish;
- (c) Governing documents in form approved by the Bishop, subscribed by the wardens, in which such parish expressly accedes to the Constitution, Canons and worship of The Episcopal Church, and to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese; and
- (d) Satisfactory evidence that it has been organized in conformance with the Canons.

Section 7.2 A mission shall be admitted into union with the Convention by the affirmative vote of the majority of the members of the Convention if the mission shall first have presented to the Convention certificate from the Bishop, Standing Committee and Diocesan Council stating that such mission is duly organized.

ARTICLE VIII

Suspension or Dissolution of Parishes or Missions

Section 8.1 Whenever any parish in union with the Convention shall have persistently disregarded or refused to conform to the Canons of The Episcopal Church or of the Diocese, the Bishop shall give due notice of such violation to such parish. If, after receipt of the notice by the parish, the parish shall have failed in a timely manner to cure the violation described in the notice, and the Bishop is of the opinion that the parish may be liable to suspension of its privilege of representation in the Convention, or the dissolution of its parochial relationship with the Diocese, the Bishop shall so advise the Convention. Thereupon, by concurrent two-thirds vote of the clerical and lay orders, voting separately, the Convention may proceed to suspend the representation of such parish in the Convention or wholly dissolve the parochial relationship of the parish with the Diocese.

Section 8.2 Whenever in the judgment of the Bishop, with the concurrence of the Standing Committee and the Diocesan Council, the status of any mission in union with the Convention should be changed or the mission dissolved the Bishop may take such action and report the same to the next Convention.

ARTICLE IX

Apportionment

The Convention may raise funds from the parishes and missions of the Diocese, by Canon, or by special vote through an apportionment to provide their proportionate share of the expenses of the Diocese. The Convention may propose by Canon such penalties as it may determine for failure to pay such apportionment when due, including the right to reduce representation in Convention.

ARTICLE X

Election of Bishops

Section 10.1 The election of a Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor or Bishop Suffragan, for the Diocese, shall be held at a Convention of the Diocese.

Section10.2 The call to elect a Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor or Bishop Suffragan shall be issued by the Standing Committee which shall give, through its Secretary, at least thirty (30) days written notice of such election to every parish and mission of the Diocese and to every cleric.

Section10.3 At a Convention to elect a Bishop, a majority of all clergy eligible to vote, and not less than two thirds of all parishes and missions, represented by at least one delegate, shall constitute a quorum. If such representation of the clerical order and of the foregoing congregations is not present at any ballot, and if a quorum is called for, then it shall be announced that no quorum exists, and the Convention shall be recessed until such a quorum is present.

Section10.4 Voting shall be by ballot. The clerical and lay orders shall vote separately, and the concurrent majority of voters in each order present shall constitute the election.

Section10.5 Upon the affirmative vote of not less than one third of the Convention members present, the Convention shall sit with closed doors.

ARTICLE XI

Deputies to the General Convention

Section11.1 At an Annual Convention which meets no more than two years prior to a General Convention, deputies to the General Convention shall be elected. The Convention shall elect as many as four clerical deputies and as many as four lay deputies to represent the Diocese in the General Convention. Deputies shall continue in office until their successors are elected unless a deputy no longer meets the criteria of eligibility for election to the office. Clerical deputies shall be clergy eligible under the Constitution of The Episcopal Church to serve as such, who are actively engaged in the worship and ministry of the Diocese. Lay deputies shall be communicants in good standing of the Church registered in a congregation of the Diocese.

Section11.2 At the same Convention there shall be elected, in the same manner and with the same qualifications as prescribed in Section 11.1, as many as four clerics and as many as four lay persons who shall serve as alternate deputies.

Section11.3 The Bishop shall designate from those present, in descending order in accordance with the votes received by each at their election, one or more of the alternate deputies, as the case may require, to fill any vacancy or vacancies which may in any way occur in the representation of the Diocese.

ARTICLE XII

Section12.2 No proposed amendment shall be considered or acted upon by any Annual Convention (except to refer the proposed amendment to a committee for a report to the next Annual Convention) unless copies of such proposed amendments shall have been filed with the Secretary of the Convention at least forty-five days before the first day of the Convention.

Section12.3 The Secretary shall have copies of all proposed amendments available for use at the Convention and shall deliver copies of all those filed to the Chairman of the Committee on Canons, which Committee shall report on the proposed amendments at the Convention.

Section12.4 The Committee on Canons, in its judgment, may recommend a substitute for or modification of the proposed amendment.

Section12.5 Any proposed amendment which shall have been duly considered and approved at an Annual Convention, shall be referred to the next Annual Convention for final consideration and action; provided, however, that the proposed amendment may be amended before its adoption on second reading by a two-thirds affirmative vote cast by each order, voting separately. If then approved and adopted by the Convention, by a majority of the votes cast by each order, voting separately, the amendment shall become effective.

As Amended November 4, 2016

CANONS OF THE DIOCESE OF RHODE ISLAND

CANON I

Diocesan Convention

Section 1.1 Membership of Convention. The Diocesan Convention shall be composed of Bishops, Clergy and delegates, sitting as one body.

Section 1.2 List of Clerical Members. At least thirty but not more than ninety days before the meeting of any Annual or Special Convention of the Diocese, the Bishop shall cause to be prepared a list of all Clergy canonically resident in the Diocese. Clergy named in such list shall be entitled to seats and votes in the Convention as specified in Article V of the Constitution. If the Episcopate should be vacant, or if the Bishop should be absent or incapable of acting, the Standing Committee shall prepare the list of Clergy. When the right of any Cleric to a seat in the Convention is claimed or disputed, the question shall be determined by the Convention after consideration of the findings and recommendations of the Standing Committee.

Section 1.3 Certification of Lay Members. The election of delegates and alternates to any Diocesan Convention shall be certified in writing by the minister in charge of the congregation of which they are the representatives or, in the absence of the minister, by a warden or by the clerk of such congregation. The certificate of the election of delegates and alternates shall be in the form prepared and distributed by the Secretary of Convention and shall be forwarded to the Secretary of Convention within thirty days of their election. From these certificates the Secretary of Convention shall prepare a list of the delegates and alternates entitled to seats and votes in the Convention. When the right of any lay person to a seat in the Convention is claimed or disputed, the question shall be determined by the Convention after consideration of the findings and recommendations of the Standing Committee.

Section 1.4 Acts Binding. It shall be the duty of delegates to attend sessions of the Convention. If, for whatever cause, a congregation is not represented in any Convention, or in any of the sessions thereof, such congregation shall nevertheless be bound by all acts of such Convention.

Section 1.5 Vacancies. Any vacancy in the representation of any congregation shall be filled either temporarily or permanently by an alternate delegate designated by the minister in charge to the Secretary of the Convention.

CANON II

Committees of Convention

Section 2.1 Regular Committees. The regular committees of Convention shall consist of the Committee on Admissions, the Committee on Canons, the Committee on Agenda, the Committee on Resolutions, and the Committee on Elections.

Section 2.2 Appointment. Members of the regular committees of the Convention shall be appointed annually by the Ecclesiastical Authority within sixty days of the close of any Annual Convention and unless otherwise specified shall serve staggered three year terms or until their successors are appointed. Any vacancies in committees shall be filled by the Ecclesiastical Authority with confirmation by Diocesan Council.

Section 2.3 Committee on Admissions. The Committee on Admissions shall consist of one Cleric and two lay persons. All applications for admission into union with the Convention shall be referred to the Committee, which shall be appointed by the Bishop on an as needed basis, with confirmation by the Diocesan Council. The Committee is to serve until the Committee's report is presented to Convention. The Committee shall review any application for admission and shall report to Convention all applications.

Section 2.4 Committee on Canons. The Committee on Canons shall consist of a minimum number of four people, consisting of at least one clergy, one lay person, the Canon to the Ordinary, if there is one, and the Chancellor. All proposed amendments of the Charter, the Constitution and the Canons of the Diocese and the Rules of Order of the Convention shall be referred to the Committee which shall review and shall report to Convention all proposed amendments.

Section 2.5 Committee on Agenda. The Committee on Agenda shall consist of at least three persons who shall be appointed annually by the Bishop. In consultation with Diocesan Staff and the Canon to the Ordinary, the Committee shall arrange the agenda for sessions of Convention and expedite business of the Convention.

Section 2.6 Committee on Resolutions. The Committee on Resolutions shall consist of at least two Clergy and at least two lay persons appointed by the Bishop with confirmation by Diocesan Council within sixty (60) days of the close of Convention. All resolutions recommending action by Convention other than resolutions accompanying reports presented to Convention shall be referred to the Committee which shall review and shall report to Convention all resolutions.

Section 2.7 Committee on Elections. The Committee on Elections shall consist of at least two Clergy and two lay persons who have been selected in consultation with the Diocesan Staff as identified by the Bishop, appointed by the Bishop and confirmed by Diocesan Council. The Committee shall present nominations and conduct elections for all elective offices except the offices of Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor and Bishop Suffragan. Any lay person nominated to office shall have been approved by the priest serving their congregation; provided, however, the nomination of a lay person from the Convention floor shall not require such prior approval. At Convention the Committee shall appoint tellers to receive and count the votes. The tellers may all be lay persons and need not be members of Convention. Nominations to any elective office shall be made only with the consent of the nominee.

Section 2.8 Other Committees. The Convention may create such other committees with such powers and duties as Convention may determine.

CANON III

Business of Convention

Section 3.1 Rules of Order. In addition to the provisions of the Constitution and the Canons of the Diocese, action at Convention shall be governed by the Rules of Order, which, having been once adopted, shall continue in force until they shall have been amended, suspended, or repealed in whole or in part. The Rules of Order may be amended, suspended or repealed only by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present.

Section 3.2 Order of Business. The order of business of Convention shall be as determined by majority vote of the Convention upon recommendation of the Committee on Agenda immediately upon the organization of the Convention. Once adopted, the order of business shall not be further amended except upon vote of two-thirds of the members present.

Section 3.3 Nominations and Elections. Each elected position is a three-year term, unless otherwise specified. The term of office shall continue until the close of the Diocesan Convention, or until successors are elected or appointed. No one serving in an elected position who has served two consecutive terms shall be eligible for re-election until one year after the second term has expired. Except as provided elsewhere in these Canons, no full time employee of the Diocese may be elected or appointed to any committee, commission or other group; this does not preclude any full time employee from being elected or appointed a deputy or alternate to General Convention. The procedure for nominations and elections shall be as prescribed in the Rules of Order.

Section 3.4 Voting. In all elections by the Convention, except for the election of Bishops, the clerical and lay orders shall vote together, and not by orders, considered separately. No person shall be declared elected unless such person shall have received a majority of the votes cast. In the case of Bishops, no person shall be declared elected unless such person shall have received a majority of the votes cast by the clerical and lay orders, considered separately.

Section 3.5 Election by Unanimous Consent. If, at the time for voting, the number of nominees for any office equals the number of vacancies to be filled, the Secretary may be directed to cast a unanimous ballot for such office.

Section 3.6 Nomination of a Bishop. Following a call for an election of a bishop by the ecclesiastical authority, the Standing Committee and the Diocesan Council shall appoint a Committee to conduct the nomination and election process. The Committee shall consist of no less than nine (9) members with clergy constituting a majority of one. Concurrently with the call for the election of a bishop, the ecclesiastical authority shall propose a budget for the expenses of the election for approval by the Standing Committee and the Diocesan Council. The Committee shall have the power to adopt rules and procedures governing the process that are not inconsistent with the Canons of General Convention and the Canons of the Diocese of Rhode Island. The Committee shall call for, receive and may itself propose names of clergy who may be elected to the episcopal office to be filled, and determine the time within which such names shall be filed with the Committee, provided that the time shall not be less than one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the date for the Convention at which such election is to be held. Any member of the Committee whose name is proposed for consideration as a candidate for episcopal office shall resign from the Committee. The Committee shall consider information as to the persons so proposed and, after due deliberation, shall select not more than five (5) whom it deems qualified. The Committee shall create a process for the nomination of additional persons by petition, provided that the time within which such names shall be filed with the Committee shall not be less than forty-five (45) days prior to the date for the Convention at which such election is to be held. The Committee shall prepare a report to Convention, which shall include the names of the persons selected by the Committee, the names of the persons added by petition, and biographical information as to each person. The Report of the Committee shall constitute the nomination of the persons at the Convention to elect a Bishop. No nominations may be made other than as provided in this Canon 3.6.

CANON IV

Standing Committee

Section 4.1 Duties. The Standing Committee, comprised of four Presbyters and four lay persons, shall be the council of advice to the Bishop and shall perform such duties as required by and in conformance with the Constitution and Canons of The Episcopal Church and the Constitution and Canons of this Diocese.

Section 4.2 Term of Office. The members shall serve staggered terms of four years each. At each Annual Convention there shall be elected one Presbyter and one lay person for such term. No person who has served for a full term of four years, or for more than two years in an unexpired term, shall be eligible for election until after the expiration of one full year. The failure to attend three consecutive regular meetings of the Standing Committee, unless the failure to attend is waived by a majority of the Standing Committee, shall be deemed to be a resignation of the member. Vacancies may be filled by the Diocesan Council to serve until the next Annual Convention, which shall elect a member for the unexpired term.

Section 4.3 Officers. The officers of the Standing Committee shall be a President and a Secretary, to be elected from and by the members thereof.

Section 4.4 Report. The Standing Committee shall make a full report of its activities to each Annual Convention.

CANON V

Officers of the Diocese

Section 5.1 President. The Bishop shall ex officio, be the President of the Diocese.

Section 5.2 Secretary.

- (a) At each Annual Convention, a Secretary shall be elected from among the members of the Convention or from communicants in good standing of The Episcopal Church registered in a congregation of the Diocese. The term of office shall continue until the close of the next Annual Convention or until a successor is elected. A Secretary shall be responsible for the preparation of the minutes of every Diocesan Convention during which he or she was in office. When not a member of the Convention, the Secretary shall ex officio, be entitled to a seat and a voice in the Convention, but not to a vote.

In the event there is no Church Attorney then serving, the Bishop shall appoint a successor Church Attorney in consultation with the Standing Committee. The Diocese may compensate a Church Attorney for services rendered at a rate described in a written retainer agreement and shall reimburse a Church Attorney for reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in a proceeding under this Canon XVI. Section 16.15 Agreements. In accordance with Canon IV.5.3(i) of the Canons of the Church, the Diocese may enter into agreements with one or more other dioceses for the sharing of resources.

CANON XVII

At an annual convention which meets no more than two years prior to a General Convention, there shall be elected as many as four clerical deputies and as many as four lay deputies to represent the Diocese in the General Convention. Deputies and alternate deputies shall continue in office until their successors are elected, unless a deputy no longer meets the criteria of eligibility for election to the office. Clerical deputies shall be clergy eligible under the Constitution of the Episcopal Church to serve as such, who are actively engaged in the worship and ministry of the Diocese. Lay Deputies shall be communicants in good standing of the Church registered in a congregation of the Diocese.

At the same Convention there shall be elected, in the same manner and with the same qualifications as prescribed in Section 17.1, as many as four clerics and as many as four lay persons who shall serve as alternate deputies.

At an annual convention which meets no more than two years preceding the meeting of the Synod of the First Province, there shall be elected the number of clerical and lay deputies and alternates allowed this Diocese pursuant to the ordinances of the First Province then in effect. Deputies and alternates shall serve until their successors are elected. Any vacancy in the deputation of this Diocese shall be filled by appointment by the Bishop with the concurrence of Diocesan Council.

CANON XVIII

Indemnification

Section 18.1 Agreement of Diocese. In order to induce the directors and officers of the Diocese to serve as such, the Diocese adopts this Canon and agrees to provide the directors and officers of the Diocese with the benefits contemplated hereby.

Section 18.2 Persons Entitled to Benefits. This Canon will apply, and the benefits hereof will be available, to each director and officer of the Diocese who serves the Diocese as such without the need for other proof that the member or officer has accepted the provisions of this Canon.

Section 18.3 Definitions. As used herein, the following terms will have the following respective meanings:

“Covered Act” means any act or omission by the Indemnified Person in the Indemnified Person's official capacity with the Diocese and while serving as such or while serving at the request of the Diocese as a member of the governing body, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise.

“Director” means a member of the Standing Committee or the Diocesan Council. 'Excluded Claim' has the meaning set forth in paragraph 18.6, hereof.

“Expenses” means any reasonable expenses incurred by the Indemnified Person in connection with the defense of any claim made against the Indemnified Person for Covered Acts including, without being limited to, legal, accounting or investigative fees and expenses (including the expense of bonds necessary to pursue an appeal of an adverse judgment). 'Indemnified Person' means any member of the Standing Committee, Diocesan Council or officer of the Diocese who serves the Diocese as members or officer.

“Loss” means any amount which the Indemnified Person is legally obligated to pay as a result of any claim made against the Indemnified Person for Covered Acts including, without being limited to, judgments for, and awards of, damages, amounts paid in settlement of any claim, any fine or penalty or, with respect to an employee benefit plan, any excise tax or penalty.

“Proceeding” means any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative.

Section 18.4 Indemnification. Subject to the exclusions hereinafter set forth, the Diocese will indemnify the Indemnified Person against and hold the Indemnified Person harmless from any Loss or Expenses.

Section 18.5 Advance Payment of Expenses. The Diocese will pay the Expense of the Indemnified Person as such time and from time to time as the Indemnified Person may request in advance of the final disposition of any Proceeding except to the extent that the defense of a claim against the Indemnified Person is undertaken pursuant to any directors' and officers' liability insurance (or equivalent insurance known by another term) maintained by the Diocese. The advance payment of Expenses will be subject to the Indemnified Person's agreement with the Diocese (evidenced by the Indemnified Person's acceptance of an advance payment or, if requested a prior agreement in writing) to repay the sums paid by it hereunder if it is thereafter determined that the Proceeding involved an Excluded Claim or that the Indemnified Person was not entitled to indemnity by reason of the provisions of paragraph 18.9.

Section 18.6 Exclusions. The Diocese will not be liable to pay any Loss or Expenses (an “Excluded Claim”):

- (a) With respect to a Proceeding in which a final nonappealable judgment or other adjudication by a court of competent jurisdiction determines that the Indemnified Person is liable to the Diocese (as distinguished from being liable to a third party) for:
 - (i) any breach of the Indemnified Person's duty of loyalty to the Diocese or its members;
 - (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of law; or
 - (iii) any transaction from which the Indemnified Person derived an improper personal benefit; or
- (b) If a final, non-appealable judgment or other adjudication by a court of competent jurisdiction determines that such payment is unlawful.

Section 18.7 Notice to Diocese: Insurance. Promptly after receipt by the Indemnified Person of notice of the commencement of or the threat of commencement of any Proceeding, the Indemnified Person will, if indemnification with respect thereto may be sought from the Diocese under these Canons, notify the Diocese of the commencement thereof. Failure to promptly notify the Diocese will not adversely affect the Indemnified Person's right to indemnification hereunder unless and only to the extent that the Diocese is materially prejudiced in its ability to defend against the Proceeding by reason of such failure. If, at the time of the receipt of such notice, the Diocese has any directors' and officers' liability insurance in effect, the Diocese will give prompt notice of the commencement of such Proceeding to the insurer in accordance with the procedures set forth in the policy or policies in favor of the Indemnified Person. The Diocese will thereafter take all the necessary or desirable action to cause such insurer to pay, on behalf of the Indemnified Person, all Loss and Expenses payable as a result of such Proceeding in accordance with the terms of such policies.

Section 18.8 Indemnification Procedures.

- (a) Payments on account of the Diocese's indemnity against Loss will be made by the Treasurer of the Diocese except if, in the specific case, a determination is made that the indemnification of the Indemnified Person is not proper in the circumstances because such Loss results from a claim which is an Excluded Claim. If the Diocese so determines that the Loss results from an Excluded Claim (although no such determination is required by the Diocese hereunder prior to payment of a Loss by the Treasurer), the determination shall be made:
 - (i) By the Diocesan Council by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of members not at the time parties to the Proceeding; or
 - (ii) If a quorum cannot be obtained for purposes of clause (i) of this subparagraph (a), then by a majority vote of a committee of the Diocesan Council duly designated to act in the matter by a majority vote of the full Council (in which designation members who are parties to the Proceeding may participate) consisting solely of three or more trustees not at the time parties to the Proceeding; or
 - (iii) By independent legal counsel designated: (A) by the Diocesan Council in the manner described in clause (i) of this subparagraph (a), or by a committee of the Diocesan Council established in the manner described in clause (ii) of this subparagraph (a), or (B) if the requisite quorum of the full Council cannot be obtained therefore and a committee cannot be so established, by a majority vote of the full Council (in which designation members who are parties to the Proceeding may participate). If made, any such determination permitted to be made by this subparagraph(a) will be made within 60 days of the Indemnified Person's written request for payment of a Loss.

- (b) Payment of an Indemnified Person's Expenses in advance of the final disposition of any Proceeding will be made by the Treasurer of the Diocese except if, in the specific case, a determination is made pursuant to Canon 18.8 (a) above that indemnification of the Indemnified Person is not proper in the circumstances because the Proceeding involved an Excluded Claim.
- (c) The Diocese will have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Indemnified Person against liability asserted against him or her with respect to any Covered Act, whether or not the Diocese would have the power to indemnify such Indemnified Person against such liability under the provisions of this Canon. The Diocese will be subrogated to the rights of such Indemnified Person to the extent that the Diocese has made any payments to such Indemnified Person in respect to any Loss or Expense as provided herein.

Section 18.9 Settlement. The Diocese will have no obligation to indemnify the Indemnified Person under this Canon for any amounts paid in settlement of any Proceeding effected without the Diocese's prior written consent. The Diocese will not unreasonably withhold or delay its consent to any proposed settlement. If the Diocese so consents to the settlement of any Proceeding, or unreasonably withholds or delays such consent, it will be conclusively and irrebuttably presumed for all purposes that the Loss or Expense does not constitute an Excluded Claim. If the Diocese reasonably withholds its consent solely on the ground that the Proceeding constitutes an Excluded Claim, the Indemnified Person may accept the settlement without the consent of the Diocese, without prejudice to the Indemnified Person's rights to indemnification in the event the Diocese does not ultimately prevail on the issue of whether the Proceeding constitutes an Excluded Claim.

Section 18.10 Rights Not Exclusive. The rights provided hereunder will not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the Indemnified Person may be entitled under any agreement, vote of disinterested trustees or otherwise, both as to action in the Indemnified Person's official capacity and as to action in any other capacity while holding such office, and will continue after the Indemnified Person ceases to serve the Diocese as an Indemnified Person.

Section 18.11 Enforcement.

- (a) The Indemnified Person's right to indemnification hereunder will be enforceable by the Indemnified Person in any court of competent jurisdiction and will be enforceable notwithstanding that an adverse determination has been made as provided in Canon 18.8 hereof.
- (b) In the event that any action is instituted by the Indemnified Person under the Canons, the Indemnified Person will be entitled to be paid all court costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by the Indemnified Person with respect to such action, unless the court determines that each of the material assertions made by the Indemnified Person as a basis for such section was not made in good faith or was frivolous.

Section 18.12 Severability. If any provision of this Canon is determined by a court to require the Diocese to perform or to fail to perform an act which is in violation of applicable law, this Canon shall be limited or modified in its application to the minimum extent necessary to avoid a violation of law, and, as so limited or modified, this Canon shall be enforceable in accordance with its terms.

Section 18.13 Successor and Assigns. The provisions of this Canon will be (a) binding upon all successors and assigns of the Diocese (including any transferee of all or substantially all of its assets) and (b) binding on and inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators, and other personal representatives of the Indemnified Person.

Section 18.14 Amendment. No amendment or termination of this Canon will be effective as to an Indemnified Person without the prior written consent of that Indemnified Person and, in any event, will not be effective as to any Covered Act of the Indemnified Person occurring prior to the amendment or termination.

CANON XIX

No proposed amendment shall be considered or affirmatively acted upon by any Convention (other than by reference to the Committee on Canons or to a special committee to report to a succeeding Convention) unless duplicate copies of such proposed amendment shall have been filed with the Secretary of Convention at least forty-five days before the meeting of the Convention.
