

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN SERVING ON A DIOCESAN COMMITTEE OR COMMISSION?

Volunteers are always needed to help in the governing of the Diocese. Many of the positions are elected by Diocesan Council, others are elected by the Diocesan Convention, and some are appointed by the Bishop. Listed below are the committees and commissions of our Diocese. They all contain a combination of clergy and lay people. For the most part, people are elected to three-year terms (there are some exceptions to this). A person may serve for two consecutive three-year terms (also some exceptions).

A complete list of the committees and the current membership can be found on the diocesan website. There is also a short description that outlines the work of each group. This information can be found at www.episcopalri.org/about/leading-your-diocese/

If you are interested in serving on any of these committees or commissions, fill out the form below. Not every group has vacancies every year, so someone from the Committee on Elections will be in contact with you.

To be officially nominated for a position, you must fill out a separate nomination form. If you have questions, call the diocesan office at 401-274-4500.
